Dear Parent/Carer,

We are pleased to share with you the launch of Carr Junior School's refreshed values, which will guide and support everything we do as a school community:

Be kind, Be curious, Be resilient, Be yourself

These values may be new in wording, but they are carefully adapted from our previous school values, keeping the same spirit and intentions while making them clearer and easier for children to understand and use every day. They reflect the caring, ambitious and inclusive culture we continue to build together at Carr.
Over the coming weeks and beyond, these values will be woven into the way we talk to the children about their learning, their friendships and their behaviour. They will be referred to regularly in class discussions, assemblies, praise systems and celebrations, helping children to use the language of the values confidently and meaningfully.
A quick overview of each value:

- Be kind – Treat others with care, compassion and respect.
- Be curious – Ask questions, wonder, explore and enjoy learning.
- Be resilient – Keep going when things feel challenging and learn from mistakes.
- Be yourself – Celebrate individuality, strengths, talents and personality.

We hope these values will support not only your child's learning, but also their growing confidence, wellbeing and sense of belonging at Carr.

We look forward to sharing updates across the term showing how the values are being lived out in classrooms and around school.

Thank you for your continued support. If you have any questions about our refreshed values or how we will be using them in school, please feel free to get in touch.

Warm regards,

Laura Winston
